

Grief & Loss Healing

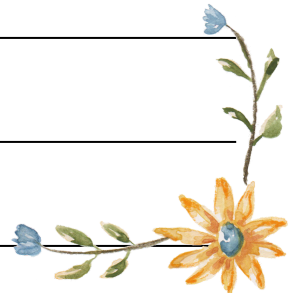

Dear Reader,

Grief has no timeline. You may feel angry, deeply sad, confused, or even emotionally numb — and all of it is valid. Loss can leave words unspoken and emotions unfinished, but healing begins when you allow yourself to express what's inside.

One gentle way to process your feelings is through the Healing Letter Exercise: write a letter to the person or situation you lost and say everything you never could — the love, the anger, the questions, the gratitude. There is no right or wrong way to do it. When you're ready, begin writing your letter below.

love,
